

Wouldn't it be great if Connecticut had huge supply of renewable energy and CT residents were lined up, eager to pay for it themselves? We are. If I could have purchased shared solar, I would have done so already. Why are we letting Eversource lobby against the state and the people's best interest. CT should be leader in renewable energy, not complicit in enriching Eversource and fossil fuel interests at our expense. Shared solar now please.

Dan Surkis
Farmington CT